Graham is also a professional actor (MEAA Freelance) and in his recent career has acted in several feature films and many shorts, TVCs and corporate videos. For example - he has worked at the highest level of Australian film making directly on set with Baz Luhrmann as Jack Thompson's 'stand-in' on the feature film 'Australia' over 8 months in 2007; thus exposing him first hand to all aspects of a 'hollywood' style feature film production.
